STANDING ORDERS OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Presiding Elders shall be a Standing Committee to nominate the usual Conference Committees and report at the opening of the session. 1880, Journal A, p. 321.

The Presiding Elders shall report to the Conference Secretary the names of lay delegates elected immediately after the close of the several district conferences. 1881, Journal A, p. 354.

The Conference Sessions to open with the administration of the Lord's Supper. 1888, Journal B, p. 277.

The Secretary to be Editor of the Minutes. 1906, Journal, p. 21.

Lay members of the District Conference embrace all Sunday School Superintendents, Recording Stewards, and two delegates chosen by the quarterly conference.

Examining Committees may accept work done in the Correspondence School in lieu of examinations by themselves.

Ground for discontinuance or location for an undergraduate to fail in bringing up his course of study without reasons satisfactory to the Conference. 1915.

Lay Activities—The Committee on Lay Activities made a comprehensive report which was read, adopted and ordered published in the New Orleans Christian Advocate, as follows:

LAY ACTIVITIES.

While reports from charge lay leaders have not been complete, we are pleased to state that there has been an increase of interest throughout the Conference in the Laymen's Movement. There are now more laymen enlisted than ever before and the prospect of growth is flattering. Committees of lay activities have been elected in most of the charges, though many of them are as yet inactive. The "every member canvass" has been made in some thirty charges and the duplex envelope system is in use in about ten charges for raising the benevolent collections. Others charges may have made the canvass of their membership, but their leaders have not so reported. We urge our pastors to see that the lay leaders make proper reports.

A careful study of the local churches of the Conference reveals the fact that we are taking no appreciable part in carrying out the Great Commission. In fact, we are making little, if any, progress in the evangelization of our own territory. Should we fail to meet the responsibilities now upon us, we must lose our crown as an evangelizing force and our commission must be given to others.

Our churches are located in rural communities and small towns. The problems of the city are unknown to us. It is ours to solve the problem of promoting religion and building Christian character in the country churches. The advent of good roads, the rural free delivery of mail, and the use of gasoline as a motive power, have brought the rural communities nearer together, and increased the means of acquiring knowledge, money and pleasure to such an extent as to reduce the difference between country and town life and ideals. This has caused an awakening in the country and the people are holding conferences for the purpose of solving rural life problems. These conferences are pervaded by a spirit of co-operation and it is the duty of church to take part in them. The best roads should lead to church and the church should be the center of social, intellectual and religious life of the community. It is essential that the church shall keep pace with this new movement and harness it for good, else we shall lose the country church and with it, the leaders of the next generation.

The local churches are not prepared within themselves to take this leadership. They have problems of their own. The farmer for decades pursued the one crop system till the boll weevils wrought a devastation that caused him to stop and consider the impoverishment of himself and his land wrought by lack of diversification. It seems that the church is about to discover that she has likewise suffered from making her one goal additions to the membership roll, so that even this result can no longer be secured without recourse to the artificial stimulation applied by the professional evangelist. It seems that the chief aim of the average pastor is to increase his church roll and secure full collections, so that he may make a good report at Conference. We fear that it sometimes happens that this is done in order that he may secure a better appointment and that the congregations assist him with a view a getting a better pastor.

A survey of our field shows that under our present system, only a small percentage of our members are receiving any definite religious training. No fixed goal is set for the organizations in the church and they suffer for lack of concentration and leadership. In fact, our greatest need is trained leaders and skilled teachers, to take charge of and develop the latent powers of the individual members. These teachers and leaders the church must produce. In part, this work must fall on the pastor, and he who cannot teach and train his leaders is not prepared for his task. We must continue to lose the best talent of our membership till theological schools, church colleges, pastors and church boards recognize that religious education is their task. Religion must be taught in our church schools and be taught in every year of the college course, otherwise there is no excuse for their existence.

There is now a demand upon the church colleges for the following types of courses:

- (a) Courses in the College of Liberal Arts for those students who wish to elect biblical and educational subjects which will prepare them for future responsibilities as parents and citizens and enable them to participate in the religious and moral life of their communities.

(b) Course for ministerial students who wish to master the problems of religious education while pursuing the work in liberal arts and theology.

(c) Courses for students who wish to become specialists in various lines of religious education demanded of the modern church.

When our colleges send out ministers competent to train leaders and teachers, and when they turn back to the local communities annually college graduates with a deep insight into God's Word and a knowledge of how to teach it to others, the problem of trained leadership will be solved. Until the schools furnish leaders of this sort, the burden of giving such training must fall on pastors and presiding elders. We urge that they be diligent in selecting the lay leaders and assiduous in their training. Let committees of lay activities be organized as early in the year as possible. Get before them a definite goal and instruct them in at least one line of work. Frequent meetings will be necessary in order to discover the strength or weakness of the individual and overcome the one or use the other. The spirit of brotherhood must pervade the entire organization.

We have planned in conjunction with the Board of Missions to have a simultaneous "every member canvass" for missions and other benevolences on the third Sunday in March next, and to spend the preceding week in prayer and preparation. We, therefore, urge the pastors to meet with their committees on this week, instruct, train, enthuse them, and on Sunday morning preach a soul-stirring sermon on missions, giving publicity to the plan. At 2 p. m., let the pastor meet his committee in prayer and final preparation and then let them go by twos and make a thorough canvass of the entire membership.

We hereby nominate E. V. Hughston for Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

(Signed) E. V. HUGHSTON, Chairman.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made report No. 1, which was read and adopted as follows:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS NO. 1.

Your Board rejoices over the prosperous condition of the Sunday School work throughout our whole church. It is a matter of peculiar pride that the Methodist Church has been so intimately and vitally connected with the Sunday School work since its beginning. It is notable that Hannah Ball, a young Methodist woman, organized a Sunday School in her village fourteen years before Robert Raikes began his work at Gloucester. It is also a fact to which we may point with pardonable pride that the first Sunday School organized in America was by Bishop Asbury in 1786. Our connection with the Sunday School work and the religious education of our young people has been most intimate all along to this hour.

We are glad to report an increased attendance and an increasing interest in Sunday School work throughout the whole church. During the year 1914 there was a gain of more than 87,000 pupils, so that at the beginning of the present year there was an enrollment of 1,725,409. Great gains have been made in the circulation of our literature.

Your Board has elected Rev. R. H. B. Gladney as Field Secretary, and would respectfully request the Presiding Bishop to reappoint him to this position at the same salary of $1800 and traveling expenses. We recommend that an assessment of $2400 be levied by this Conference for the maintenance of this work and that it be raised as heretofore.

J. G. McGOWEN, Chairman.

Education—The Board of Education made a report which was read and adopted as follows:

EDUCATION NO. 1.

We believe that the hour has struck when we should do large things for the education and Christian culture of our young women. While we have from year to year put small sums into our school for girls at Grenada, we have never given it the equipment and support necessary for the fulfilment of its larger mission. Now, after consultation with the Board of Trustees, we have decided to launch a campaign in the Conference to secure $50,000 for Grenada College. Nothing short of this will meet the demand of the present and this is but the beginning of what we must do if we are to maintain a first-class college for women.

We, therefore, respectfully recommend that the Conference undertake to raise this sum at the earliest possible moment and ask that an agent be appointed to take the field for the cause and devote all his time to this interest.

We further recommend that a suitable day be set apart early in the year 1916 to be known as Grenada College Day and that on this day or as nearly thereto as may be convenient, our pastors take collections in all their congregations for the expense of this campaign.

We join with the Trustees of the College in their request to the General Board of Education for the classification of Grenada College as an institution of B Grade.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. MEEK, President.

O. W. BRADLEY, Secretary.

Address and Collection—Pending the adoption of the above report, Rev. B. P. Jaco, Commissioner for Grenada College made a brief statement of his interest in the work. J. R. Countiss, President of the College, then made an address setting forth the needs of the institution and took a collection amounting to $20,277.15 in cash and subscriptions.

Introduced—E. L. Wesson, a Baptist minister of the city; W. M. McIntosh, Evangelist; S. S. McKenny, Commissioner for the Representative Church at Washington City, and President A. F. Watkins, of Millsaps College, were introduced to the Conference.

Announcements—The Committee on Public Worship announced preaching at 3 P.M., at the Methodist Church by W. M. McIntosh, and Educational Anniversary with an address by Dr. J. S. Frazer at 7 P.M. Also preaching at the Baptist Church at 7 P.M., by J. A. Bowen.

Adjournment—The hour for adjournment having arrived, the doxology was sung and the benediction was then pronounced by President Watkins.

FOURTH DAY—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1915.

MORNING SESSION.

Opening—Conference opened at the appointed hour with Bishop Atkins in the chair. The worship consisted of songs by the Misses Wisdom and prayers led by several of the brethren.

Minutes Approved—The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Located—Through his Presiding Elder, L. W. Cain asked location. His request was granted.

Referred—The following were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation, their characters passing: J. D. Newsom, T. C. Wier, W. S. Harrison, J. W. Poston, T. G. Freeman, T. Cameron, H. C. Morehead, R. M. Davis, R. A. Ellis, C. N. Terry, J. W. Anderson, A. P. Leech, B. P. Patterson, J. R. Roberson, J. M. Huggin, H. C. Edmondson, S. M. Thames, G. W. Bachman, W. C. Harris.

Leave of Absence—On account of the serious illness of his wife, R. P. Fullilove was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the session.

Communication—A letter from Mrs. S. E. Stanley, President of the Mississippi Woman's Temperance Union, was read by the Bishop. It requested that special prayer be made in our pulpits next Sunday for the sixty-fourth Congress which convenes on the following Monday, asking divine guidance for that body in its deliberations upon the question of national constitutional prohibition.

Admitted into Full Connection—The Bishop called Question 4: Who are admitted into full connection? The following young men were called to the bar of the Conference and, after giving satisfactory answers to the questions given by the Book of Discipline to be asked on such occasions, and after an appropriate address by the Bishop, were unanimously received into the traveling connection: W. N. Dodds, D. R. Wasson, J. H. Brooks, W. W. Bruner, C. T. Floyd, F. H. McGee, I. F. Holland.

Books and Periodicals—The Committee on Books and Periodicals made the following report which was read and adopted:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The exhibit submitted to us by the Publishing Agents, though showing a slight decrease of the total volume of the preceding year, is a remarkable record of the efficiency of Messrs. Smith & Lamar in whose capable hands the publishing interests of the church have been so wisely placed. We congratulate these brethren upon their achievement in the presence of such wide-spread business depression throughout the South. And we commend to our members the wise and timely suggestion contained in their communication concerning the need for the circulation of all the literature issuing from our presses. Other religions and cults realize the importance of circulating their books and periodicals and have been active in this field; we would be wise in imitating their example.

We feel immense satisfaction over the election of Rev. Horace M. DuBose, D.D., to the office of Book Editor and Editor of the Methodist Review. Scholarly, brilliant and loyal to the church, we feel no sort of doubt that Dr. DuBose will magnify his office and add measurably to the growing importance of the Review. We can with confidence urge our preachers and laymen to subscribe to the Review, well knowing that in literary ability it will be second to no similar periodical, that it will be abreast of the times, though conservative in handling modern thought, and that it will be loyal to Methodism and true to Methodist theology. Our laymen should be urged to become readers of this important Quarterly.

The Christian Advocate continues to reflect credit upon Dr. Ivey and his assistant, Dr. Chadwick. These brethren seem ever alert both for important news and for ways in which to adorn the pages of this journal; we commend it to our people as worthy of their support.

The Epworth Era seems to retain its popularity in its new form and we regard it as indispensable to those who are members of the Epworth League or who contemplate taking up that important branch of service.

We can add little to what we have previously said concerning the excellence of our Sunday School literature. Dr. Chappell is continually widening its scope and enriching its pages with the work of others as well as his own. This literature should be used in our schools in preference to all others.

It affords us very great pleasure to record the re-election of Dr. R. A. Meek for another four-year term as Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate and we renew our pledge of support in his arduous and brilliant labors in making so able and useful a journal of our Conference organ. We note that a campaign has been provided for by the joint publishing committee looking to an increase of the subscription list of this paper and we heartily commend it and promise our co-operation with those having it in charge.

We recommend for members of the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Advocate: W. W. Woollard, H. S. Spragins, and J. D. Barbee.

Respectfully submitted,

H. G. HENDERSON, Chairman.

J. D. BARBEE, Secretary.

Equalization—The committee appointed to equalize the assessments on the districts made the following report which was adopted:

EQUALIZATION.

We have taken into consideration, in our study, the factors which must enter any equitable adjustment of our finances and made a schedule of apportionment based upon the following scale: (1) One-half on basis of pastor's salary; (2) One-fourth on basis of membership in the church; (3) One-fourth flexible, to cover those conditions which cannot be reduced to figures.

On this scale the estimate is as follows:

Aberdeen District .....	12¾ per cent.
Columbus District .....	12⅞ per cent.
Corinth District .....	12½ per cent.
Durant District .....	12¾ per cent.
Greenville District .....	12⅞ per cent.
Holly Springs District .....	12½ per cent.

Sardis District .....	12¼ per cent.
Winona District .....	13 per cent.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

District Conference Records—The Committee on District Conference Records made the following report, which was read and adopted:

Your Committee on District Conference Journals reports as follows. The journal from every district was examined with care, with the following results:

Aberdeen Journal is in substance a perfect record, and in form a work of art.

Columbus, complete and accurate record, neatly kept.

Corinth, has no official roll, does not state the place of meeting, shows no record of hours to meet and adjourn, each forenoon session adjourned before public worship and preaching at 11 o'clock, has no marginal index, fails to recite that the committee on license and recommendation to serve ad interim was elected, items occurring after final adjournment are recorded, there are several minor inaccuracies and errors.

Durant, complete, accurate and neat; would be perfect if the president had affixed his signature.

Greenville, full and accurate, except it does not show the election of a committee on license and recommendation to serve ad interim. There are errors in spelling names of some members of the Conference. Reports of committees are not recorded, but are pasted in the book.

Holly Springs, appears to be full and accurate, but there is evidence of lack of care, and of great haste in recording, has no marginal index, and matter omitted from the body of the record where it should appear is carried forward from page 263 to page 269 after the signature of the president and secretary.

Sardis, full and accurate, with the exception that it does not show election of committee to license and recommend to serve ad interim.

Winona, appears to be full and accurate, somewhat marred by blurs and interlineations, and has no marginal index.

To have all the journals before the committee is unusual, and is worthy of special mention.

Some give a synopsis of verbal reports made by preachers in charge while others merely mention that such reports were made.

J. R. BINGHAM, Chairman.

Education No. 2—The Board of Education made report No. 2, which was adopted as follows:

EDUCATION NO. 2.

Your Board of Education has made a careful survey of the various educational interests of the church brought before it for consideration, and is glad to report an aroused interest in educational matters and material progress everywhere.

Being convinced that the needs of Grenada College are paramount in our educational work at present, in Report No. 1, read to this body on yesterday, it recommended the launching of a vigorous campaign to raise $50,000.00 for that institution, in which campaign it urges the hearty co-operation of every member of this Conference and of the Methodist hosts of North Mississippi. Your Board is thoroughly convinced that there is no other institution for young women in the state which is producing more satisfactory results in developing both the minds and characters of its students than Grenada College; and it believes that the credit for this is very largely due to the President of the institution, Rev. J. R. Countiss, whose re-appointment to the presidency it recommends. It recommends further the election of W. L. Duren, E. S. Lewis, R. M. Weaver, E. V. Hughston, and H. K. Barwick, as trustees of Grenada College. As Commissioner for Grenada College it recommends the appointment of Rev. B. P. Jaco. Your Board suggests that Bishop Atkins be cordially invited to assist in this campaign as his time and opportunity may permit.

But while rejoicing in the successful launching of this enterprise, it would not fail to emphasize other educational interests and enterprises of the church which are of vital consequence and demand our hearty co-operation.

Millsaps College reports, through its President, Dr. A. F. Watkins, the entire enrollment in the collegiate department to be "well in advance of the enrollment at any time in the history of the institution. All classes from Freshman to the Senior are unprecedentedly full." Increased attention is being given to the religious life of the student body, a merit system has been adopted, and certificates of praise are awarded where a hundred merits have been obtained.

The greatest needs of Millsaps College are three:

1. A dormitory for the upper classmen. This is necessary for their adequate accommodation, and for the securing of cheapness of board, the lack of which puts the institution at a disadvantage in competition with other institutions of the state.

2. A Chair of Biblical Theology, where an adequate course can be given in the study of the Bible and where our young preachers can receive instruction introductory to the courses in our two theological schools.

3. A gymnasium, which, with the work of a Physical Director will provide for the proper physical training of the entire student body.

These needs of Millsaps College we would urge upon your careful attention; and we ask your hearty co-operation in meeting these needs as plans may be formulated for the same. Your Board would especially urge upon all Presiding Elders and pastors to encourage young men seeking literary training or preparation for the ministry to attend Millsaps College, and to assist young men where needful both to attend the college and to remain there. It recommends that this Conference participate in the celebrating of the 25th Anniversary of the founding of Millsaps College and places the matter in the hands of the Executive Committee of this Board.

But Grenada and Millsaps combined do not exhaust the range of our educational interests. Your Board notes with pride the successful opening of our Southern Methodist University at Dallas, and the rapid development of Emory University at Atlanta. The support of the theological departments of these two institutions comes in good part out of the educational assessment placed upon the several charges; and on behalf of these institutions and of our own Grenada and Millsaps Colleges, we would urge upon every pastor that no discrimination be made against the educational assessment in the division of money collected on the Conference assessments, but that a pro rata division be made.

Inasmuch as it is proposed to name the Law Department of Emory University the Lamar Law School, after Mississippi's great lawyer and statesman, your Board recommends that the suggestion be endorsed with appreciation by our Conference; and that jointly with the Mississippi Conference a campaign be launched to erect a building for this department bearing this name. It recommends that the Executive Committee of the Board of Education, assisted by the Conference Secretary of Education, and in conjunction with a like committee from the Mississippi Conference be authorized to inaugurate a campaign to this end.

In harmony with the recommendations of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training, your Board would urge upon all pastors to preach annually upon the Claims of the Ministry, and to co-operate in all the plans outlined for developing an efficient ministry. Your Board heartily indorses the work of the Correspondence School and insists that every undergraduate should take advantage of the opportunities it offers to take the Conference courses in a thorough and systematic way.

The Seashore Divinity School we would commend to your attention also as offering opportunities of a high order; and we recommend that the Commissioners for this institution from this Conference be authorized to co-operate with the Divinity School in such manner as they deem fit, and to provide such financial assistance as they may find practicable.

Your Board announces the continuance of J. D. Barbee, J. C. Park, and L. M. Lipscomb, as an Executive Committee to act upon all matters arising in the interim of the Annual Conferences. Your Board requests the re-appointment of T. H. Lipscomb, and Conference Secretary of Education; and designates Rev. J. R. Countiss and Rev. T. H. Lipscomb as delegates to a general educational conference to be held during the coming year.

Finally, your Board of Education having carefully considered the report of the Commissioner of this Conference, Rev. R. A. Meek, D.D., elected to act in co-operation with the Educational Commission, in executing the instructions of the late General Conference concerning Vanderbilt University, affirms its hearty indorsement of the report as presented to this body, and begs leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved 1. That we, the members of the North Mississippi Conference, hereby express our approval of the action of the Educational Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in its session at Memphis, Tenn., February 19 and 20, 1915, in declining to go through the vain formality of executing an instrument to transfer back to the eight original patronizing Conferences claims upon Vanderbilt University which the Supreme Court of Tennessee, the highest judicial tribunal having jurisdiction, and the most eminent counsel had declared to have no basis in law, and which, in consequence, would have operated to convey to them nothing whatever of any value.

2. That we accept the action of the Educational Commission in this respect as finally determinative of the relation between Vanderbilt University and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, (including this Conference)—which relation is one of complete severance and entire independence.

3. That, while we accept this adjudication of the matter at issue as a final settlement of the present and future relation of Vanderbilt University to our church, we desire emphatically to re-affirm our unwavering conviction that the Southern Methodist Church established that institution, fostered it for decades with her patronage and support, and that, though it has been legally wrested from her ownership and control, it is today morally and equitably hers.

4. That none of the foregoing statements are to be construed as, in any sense, a waiving of our claims, either legal or moral, upon the funds contributed by Methodist people for the education of Methodist ministers that the Vanderbilt trustees now have in their possession—sacred funds, which obligations to the generous dead and every consideration of honor and justice demand should be turned over to the church to be applied to the use for which they were intended.

Orphans' Home—The Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home made the following report, which was read and adopted:

ORPHANS' HOME.

During the year just closed the work of the Methodist Orphanage of Mississippi, at Jackson, has proceeded with gratifying success. Among a family of over two hundred children there has not been a death or case of serious illness. Interest in religious life, Sunday School, Epworth League and church services, show the children to be spiritually inclined.

With two exceptions, all over ten years of age are members of the church. Thirty-eight joined during the year.

Good work has been done in the day school and an efficient corps of teachers have been employed for the present session.

The two hundred-acre farm located about three miles from Jackson, has proven a good investment. About nineteen of the older boys, under the supervision of an efficient manager—whose wife looks after the housekeeping—live in the ten-room farm house and till the land, which yielded this year a fine crop of hay, corn and oats.

Deficit .....	$ 636.75

On September 1st, 1915 the Auditors' report showed an indebtedness of $1,407.09. The bills then due and those that became due during the month brought the total indebtedness up to approximately $3,000, all of which was paid off by work day and monthly contributions, excepting the above mentioned deficit.

At a call meeting of the Executive Committee of Orphans' Home Board in mid-summer, following the annual meeting of Board in June, at which serious facts were not made known to the Board, which facts were later found to demand immediate attention; the resignation of Rev. W. M. Williams, as manager, was accepted, to take effect as soon as a man could be found to fill the vacancy.

On September 11th a meeting of the entire Board was held in Jackson, and Rev. J. B. Randolph was elected as manager, with the understanding that he was not to live in dormitory, as former managers, but should secure a cottage near the grounds and have his office in the Orphanage. The Board feels that the affairs of the Home will prosper under the supervision of the new manager. The assistants are loyal to him and the children have learned to love "Bro. Randolph." Every phase of the Orphanage life is moving on harmoniously. Classes for the instruction of the children in domestic science, book-keeping, sewing and nurse training, have recently been organized without any addition to the usual running expenses.

The Board of Managers assures the Conference that it will at all times exercise a watchful care over the bodies, minds and souls of the little ones entrusted to it, and bespeaks the continuation of the hearty co-operation of the church in this great work.

It commends the plan of monthly contributions to the cause, which has been adopted by majority of churches; for this method, alone, made it possible to meet the monthly expenses of the institution during this year of financial oppression.

The terms of office of directors, J. H. Sherard and T. H. Dorsey, expires with this session of your Conference and we respectfully ask that you elect to fill vacancies.

MRS. WALTER W. SCALES, JR.

Re-elected—J. H. Sherard and T. H. Dorsey were re-elected members of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home.

Support of the Home—The following resolution was adopted after a brief address by J. B. Randolph, manager:

Whereas, There is great need for adequate financial support for the Home during all the months of the year; be it

Resolved, That we hereby urge all pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and church members to see that collections are taken in each on one Sunday in each month and the proceeds thereof sent promptly either to the District Secretary designated to receive such funds, or to the Manager of the Mississippi Methodist Orphanage, Rev. J. B. Randolph, Jackson, Miss.

Hospital Report—The committee appointed for the Hospital made the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

We were glad to hear the encouraging report of our Hospital Commissioners and the statement of our most efficient Field Secretary, Rev. H. M. Ellis, to the effect that, in spite of the financial depression, he has raised during the year $15,000 in cash and more than $10,000 in subscriptions, meeting all obligations.

We regret very much that the Hospital is not open for business. If all of the pastors and superintendents had faithfully carried out the plan adopted by the last Conference, the funds would have been secured and the Hospital would doubtless now be full to its capacity. We feel that it is very urgent that the opening be delayed no longer and that the Presiding Elders, pastors and all the leaders of the church, if thoroughly aroused, can make it possible for the doors of the Hospital to be opened very soon after Sunday, January 23, 1916, suggested as Hospital Day for the ensuing year. We feel that we should no longer lag behind other denominations, who are enlarging their institutions for the alleviation of the suffering of their own people. We ought to be ashamed, because we are not only not providing for our own sick and afflicted, but are crowding others out of their own denominational hospitals. If the pastors are wide-awake on this subject, it will not be necessary for the Field Secretary to visit every charge. We are thoroughly convinced that as soon as we open the Hospital, the people will believe that we mean business, and will gladly by their liberality make possible the realization of our fondest hopes concerning this great institution. They will be inspired to do their best. We, therefore, offer the following resolutions:

Resolved 1st: That we heartily unite with the other Conferences enlisted in this movement, in setting apart and faithfully observing Sunday, January 23, 1916, or as near that day as possible, as Hospital Day, on which every congregation shall be asked to make an offering for this great and greatly needed institution.

2nd: That we hereby pledge ourselves to co-operate with our Field Secretary in all his efforts during the coming year.

3rd: That we will pray for him, that he may be anointed by the Holy Ghost and that utterance may be given unto him, in order that he may speak the Word of God boldly and convincingly, concerning this great movement.

4th: That we will also pray for our Methodist people that the Holy Spirit may impress upon their minds and hearts their duty in the matter, that they may respond cheerfully and liberally to this great enterprise, which means so much in a physical and spiritual sense to the sick and suffering ones of our own spiritual kin.

We recommend to the Conference the election of J. H. Sherard, M. C. Smith, L. G. Fant, Rev. W. S. Lagrone, and Rev. H. S. Spragins, as Hospital Commissioners of the North Mississippi Conference for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. JOHNSON, Chairman.

W. D. WENDEL, Secretary.

Remaining on Trial—The Bishop resumed the call of Question 2: Who remain on trial? N. N. Maxey and Guy Ray, having stood the required examination and their characters having passed, were advanced to the class of the second year. W. B. Baker and D. M. Gean, not having been before the examining committee, were continued in the class of the first year. T. G. Adair and C. C. Clark, elders received from other churches, report with the class of the first year.

Deacons of One Year—The Bishop called Question 9: Who are the deacons of one year? T. E. Yancey, not having appeared for examination, was continued in the class of the third year, his character having passed.

Elders-Elect—The Bishop called Question 14: What traveling preachers are elected elders? J. J. Baird, A. S. Raper, G. A. Baker, having completed the required term of probation and having passed all examinations, were elected elders. W. V. Shearer, not having been before the examining committee, was continued in the class of the fourth year.

Referred—W. J. Burt was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the supernumerary relation.

Collection Reported—It was announced that an offering of $47.50 had been made to the Misses Wisdom who sang for the Conference at several services.

Place of Meeting—The Bishop called Question 52: Where shall the next Conference be held? Prof. G. L. Harrell presented a largely signed and very cordial invitation from the Capitol Street Church in Jackson, Miss., to accept their hospitality and meet in their church at the same time that the Mississippi Conference meets in the Galloway Memorial Church of the same city. Such a meeting would enable the two Mississippi Conferences to hold some joint sessions, to jointly celebrate the 25th anniversary of the opening of Millsaps College, their school for men. It was moved that the invitation be accepted. A substitute was offered expressing warm appreciation of the very gracious courtesy of the invitation, but declining for reasons of expediency to meet without the bounds of the Conference. The substitute prevailed. Winona was then placed in nomination and unanimously accepted.

Afternoon Session—On motion, the Conference resolved to meet in afternoon session at 3 o'clock.

Pen Presented—On behalf of many members of the Conference, Rev. W. H. Mounger presented to Mr. P. T. Callicott a handsome fountain pen as a slight token of the very high regard in which he is held by the Conference which he has served for some thirty years as treasurer of its Joint Board of Finance.

Adjournment—The hour for adjournment having arrived, two hymns were sung by the Misses Wisdom, and Bishop Atkins dismissed the Conference with the benediction.

FOURTH DAY—DECEMBER 4, 1915.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—Conference met at the appointed hour, Bishop Atkins in the chair. Several hymns were sung by the Misses Wisdom to the great delight of the Conference. Prayer was led by Dr. H. G. Henderson.

Minutes Approved—The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Received from Other Churches—The Bishop called Question 14: Who are received from other churches as traveling preachers? Roland L. Ellis, an elder in the Presbyterian Church, appeared before the bar of the Conference and declared his agreement with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in doctrine and discipline and was by unanimous vote received into the Conference.

Introduced—President S. D. Long, of Martha Washington College, was introduced to the Conference.

Finance—The Joint Board of Finance made the following report, which was read and adopted:

Missions—The Board of Missions made the following report, which was read and adopted:

MISSIONS.

With hearts grateful to God for success already attained, and with hope for greater success in our future missionary work, your Board feels constrained to request of you more general co-operation in carrying forward the interest of missions than some have heretofore given.

Besides the all-important work of Conference Missions, which is directed by your Conference Board, our General Board is calling upon us for greater activity in the work of Home and Foreign Missions. It should not be necessary to dwell upon the great importance of the missionary effort of our church to give the gospel to the heathen within our borders, and to those in their native lands. Every broad-minded Christian of today, who has taken time to think in international thoughts concerning the great problems of today, well knows that nothing save the religion of Christ Jesus has power to so regenerate the hearts of individual men, and through them the heart of nations, that the races of mankind will be able to dwell together in peace and love on our small globe. We do know, however, that God has such power over the lives of men when the human will is yielded to the dominating influence of the Divine will through faith in Jesus Christ.

After listening to the inspiring words of Dr. Rawlings, on Thursday night, we do not deem it necessary to attempt a deeper awakening of your conscience on the great question of a forward movement in the work of evangelizing the world. If that great address on China, and her needs, failed to strike a responsive chord in any of our hearts, then it is very evident that Christ has but a small place in our lives, if indeed, He has any at all. Your Board, However, is pleased to believe that the words of Dr. Rawlings touched every heart, that heard him, and that each of us determined, by the help of God, to do our best in aiding the church do the things God expects of her.

With confidence in the leadership of the General Board, we recommend to you the plans for the work of the incoming year suggested to us by them, viz.:

1. Full payment on assessments.
2. A Missionary Special for each church to be collected above the regular assessment, where possible.
3. A Missionary special both for the Leagues and for the Sunday Schools. Our General Board request that China be made the field for the work of our Leagues and Sunday Schools for this year.
4. Continuous intercession for God's leadership in all missionary work.
5. A simultaneous "Every Member Canvass" throughout our Conference on the third (3) Sunday in March, which canvass is to be preceded by a week of preparation by the official boards and pastors through study and prayer.
6. Early collections and prompt remittances.

We recommend the following appointments: Conference Missionary Secretary, J. T. Lewis. Conference Evangelists, J. A. Bowen and J. H. Bell, without financial obligation by the Board.

Sabbath Observance—The Committee on Sabbath Observance made the following report which was read and adopted:

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Ten Commandments were not formulated to gratify a desire on the part of the Divine Maker of the Universe to dominate the race which was created in his own image and likeness, but the Author of all things was in position to set forth regulations, which properly observed would bring the largest possible good unto all the generations of men. Hence the announcement of the Decalogue, which includes the command, "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy."

Works of necessity and deeds of goodness are allowable on the Sabbath, but ordinary secular toil must cease—if the day is properly observed—and religious worship with rest and deeds of goodness must occupy the time.

Mental development and physical well-being are advanced by Sabbath observance. Favor with God and progress in Christian graces demand a day of worship and a class of service which shall result in spiritual growth and in larger usefulness. The ox is stronger for labor by liberty from the yoke and a day of rest, and even machinery does more effective service after absolute stillness one day in seven.

In America the Sabbath is violated by superfluity of railroad traffic, and the Sunday newspaper, and the reader of the Sunday issue are alike out of harmony with proper Sabbath observance. The habitual visitor to the post-office on Sunday manifests a greater desire to know the latest news than to appropriate the sacred day religiously and in the fear of God.

Ten millions of the American people desecrate the Sabbath by needless auto-goings in the superfluity of recreation. Sometimes the minister, himself, in his well-meant efforts to "hasten the coming of the Kingdom," lends aid to Sabbath violations by travel on Sunday trains to fill the engagements of his divinely given mission. Druggists violate the Sabbath when ordinary merchandise is dealt out in larger quantities than are the medicines which may be innocently sold on the day of rest. Vast multitudes are captivated by Sunday base-ball, and Sabbath desecrating picture exhibitions. The whole procedure indicates defiance of God and defective reverence for his holy command.

Righteousness exalts the nation, but when the wicked prevail the land must mourn, and no nation survives the loss of its religion. Trampling upon the Sabbath indicates a decaying religion. A nation of Sabbath breakers must become a people from whom God will withdraw, and from whose country prosperity and national distinction must depart.

As correctives and helps for perpetuating Sabbath observance, proper Legislative restrictions should have distinct encouragement and parental instruction and restraint are always at a premium. To the ministry it was said by the prophet, "Cry aloud and spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet and show my people their sins and the house of Jacob their transgressions." The devout Habbakkuk said, "Oh Lord revive thy work," and Sabbath keeping is a work of God. The American newspaper and Christian books are powerful agencies for possible good. These great molders of public sentiment and creators of character have an opportunity, which an angel might covet. The teaching forces of Christian and secular schools do vast good in developing a sentiment favorable to Sabbath observance. The great army of teachers in the Sunday Schools are an agency in supporting the commands of God, which the power of words may not set forth. We devoutly pray that all these great instrumentalities may be sanctified yet more until in the fullest observance of the Sabbath, there shall exist a fitting type of the Sabbath of eternal rest which awaits the Israel of God.

L. W. CAIN.

Land to be Sold—It is stipulated in the deed to certain land belonging to the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home that neither this land, nor any part of it may be sold without giving notice one year in advance to the two Conferences in Mississippi. The city of Jackson desires to purchase a strip of this land for use as a street. The Board of Directors have agreed to the terms of sale and hereby give to the North Mississippi Conference due notice of their wish to consummate this transaction one year hence by filing proper request with the Secretary of this Conference, after reading same in open Conference, said request to be finally passed upon at the next Conference.

Christian Advocate—The following resolution in regard to the circulation of the New Orleans Christian Advocate was adopted:

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Inasmuch as the Publishing Committee of our official organ, the New Orleans Christian Advocate, inaugurated a campaign to secure 3,000 new subscribers for that paper, which will give it then 10,000 subscribers, 1300 of which additional subscribers the North Mississippi Conference has been asked to secure:

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to make an earnest effort to secure this number of new subscribers and make the following apportionment by Districts:

Aberdeen .....	165	Greenville .....	160
Columbus .....	165	Holly Springs.....	160
Corinth .....	160	Sardis .....	160
Durant .....	160	Winona .....	170

Resolved 2. That we ask the Presiding Elders of the several Districts to bring this apportionment to the attention of the pastors and recommend that at the District Stewards' meeting an apportionment of these assignments be made to the several charges on such basis as will best secure the full number of subscriptions.

H. S. SPRAGINS,
J. D. BARBEE.

Temperance—The Committee on Temperance made the following report, which was read and adopted, after a brief address by Capt. W. T. Ratliff, President of the State Anti-Saloon League:

TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, liquor selling is prevalent throughout our State, and liquor consumption leads to the commission of more crimes than any other one agency, corrupting our youth and our manhood—by promoting every form of vice and criminality, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby request that our liquor laws be amended, as were recently those of Georgia, so as to prohibit the advertisement of vinous, spirituous, or malt liquors, in any of the newspapers of the State of Mississippi, or in any other manner in the said State; and to put a strict limitation to the amount of such liquors that may be ordered by any one person within any thirty days.

Be it resolved, That the North Mississippi Conference hereby memorialize the Legislature of Mississippi to amend the laws punishing gambling so as to include all forms of lotteries and games of chance operated through slot-machines or otherwise, whereby money or other things of value are given as incident to purchases of goods or otherwise;

And Whereas, It appears to your committee that public opinion upon these questions is not wide-awake, and well-formed, but needs to be aroused and stimulated, and whereas, our ministry is a very proper and safe source of information and stimulation, as well as education, therefore be it resolved,

That the members of this Conference be and are hereby very earnestly urged to preach educational sermons and to address their several congregations in the interest of a better and more careful observance of the laws of the State that have been passed and may be passed upon this question, and to strive to inculcate a sentiment of law observance and law enforcement in their respective communities. We most heartily endorse the work of the Mississippi Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U.

JAMES H. FELTS, Chairman.

E. G. MOHLER, JR., Secretary.
Committee.

Epworth Leagues—The Epworth League Board made its report, which was read and adopted as follows:

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

There is a true philosophy back of the young people's movement in the church. Wesley, in his day, recognized it, and formulated the dictum, "The church which cares for its young people will in turn be cared for by them. The church which fails to provide for its young will soon have none to provide for." The vital principle underneath this quickening of the young life of the church is one of the most potent factors in the ecclesiastical progress of the times.

Dr. H. K. Carroll wisely observes: "I believe the idea which underlies the League is the most important discovery of the last century, and that any church which does not organize and set at work its young people will not only not grow, but will lose what it has." In view of these declarations and other similar facts equally as important, we feel urged to accentuate the necessity of the Epworth League work.

The visit of Dr. F. S. Parker, our Epworth League Secretary, has been an inspiration to the Conference. His timely and strong address at the Epworth League Anniversary greatly heartening our forces.

The Epworth Era, the organ of our Epworth Leagues, is an admirable monthly, absolutely necessary to the equipment of an intelligent League worker. Under the able editorship of Dr. Parker, this magazine is meeting the needs of the Leaguers in their work.

The Epworth League Conference held in Grenada in June, was well attended and fruitful of large good in the progress of the work. The presence of the Assistant Epworth League Secretary, Rev. Marvin Culbreth, and our Missionary Secretary of Education, Dr. E. H. Rawlings, was highly helpful and a genuinely enthusiastic League spirit was manifest. The next conference meets at Water Valley, the time to be fixed later.

It is the purpose of this Board to hold a chain of Epworth League Institutes in the bounds of the Conference next spring, one in each presiding elder's district. A Flying Squadron of Epworth League leaders, headed by Dr. Parker will visit each institute and assist in advancing the interest of the Epworth League work.

We urge that Epworth League Anniversary Day be observed by all of our Epworth Leagues, and that the money collected by each chapter be turned in as directed: one-half to the central office, and the rest to the treasurer of our Conference Epworth League, Mr. W. E. Kenneday, of Columbus, Miss.

As there seems to be a good deal of confusion about the remittance of the various funds—Missions, Anniversary Day, Chapter Membership Fee, Conference Convention Fee, etc.—it seems advisable to have all moneys sent to the Conference Epworth League Treasurer who is in direct correspondence with all the chapters and therefore can most easily keep in touch with the local Leagues.

We are glad to know that the interest in the League work in the Conference is still encouraging. We are planning for larger things, and hope this year may be the best in the history of the Epworth League work in the North Mississippi Conference.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the committee,
H. G. HENDERSON,
R. P. NEBLETT.

Secretary to Edit—The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, Some of the reports may be rather too long to incorporate in the minutes, and others may need editing in other ways,

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to edit such reports and need may require.

(Signed) JAMES H. FELTS,
W. L. DUREN.

Church Extension—The Board of Church Extension made the following report, which was adopted after reading:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We rejoice to report to you that the past year has been the most successful in the history of the Board of Church Extension. The increase in the General Loan Fund last year was $110,853.56, which is $66,222.66 in excess of any amount raised by the board in any previous year. Our General Secretary has erected in Louisville, Ky., a splendid brick office building for the home of the Parent Board. This building has been completed without expense to the Board. We feel that Dr. W. F. McMurry as Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, has done a marvelous work for Southern Methodism. He is a genius in the field of Church Extension.

This year at the May meeting of the General Board in St. Louis a committee was appointed to inaugurate and carry out a campaign to increase our Loan Fund Capital by an amount equal to ten cents per capita for our entire church membership. We most heartily endorse the work of this committee and pledge our loyal support in carrying out this campaign. We ask our preachers and churches to fall in line with the whole church in increasing our Loan Fund capital. As the amount raised by any Conference may be used either to create or to augment a Conference loan fund, your Board asks you to use the funds raised in this campaign to increase your Galloway Conference Loan Fund, unless otherwise ordered by the donors. This fund now amounts to $1,946.42. We respectfully ask this Conference to set apart the second Sunday in May, 1916, as the date upon which to launch this campaign. We urge members of this Conference to make good use of the literature that shall be sent out by the Parent Board for use in this campaign.

We urge the use of birthday jars in our Sunday School birthday offerings to the Sunday School Loan Fund.

We recommend that this Conference pledge to the Washington City Representative Church the sum of three thousand dollars, to be paid in three annual installments of $1000.00 each, to be assigned to the eight Presiding Elders' District, and that the Presiding Elders be charged with the task of raising the same in sums of $125.00 from each District.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made the following report which was read and adopted:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS No. 2.

Our Field Secretary, Rev. R. H. B. Gladney, has already reported to this Conference and we find that he has been faithful and diligent, holding services in the interests of the Sunday School work at 140 different places. He has distributed 10,000 pieces of literature, travelled more than 11,000 miles and has shown himself a workman who needeth not to be ashamed. We commend his faithfulness and earnest spirit and confidently expect still larger and more efficient services at his hands another year.

We point with pride to our splendid Sunday School literature, unsurpassed in character, and prepared with the greatest care. The Sunday School Department has engaged the ablest scholars in the land to assist in the preparation of the lessons for the coming year and no church can offer a better grade of literature to her people than that which is offered us at the hands of our Sunday School Editor.

We rejoice at the signs of progress throughout our whole Church but we are most gratified at the growth of the Sunday School work in our own midst. There has been a net gain during the past year of 2600 in our Church membership and a net gain of 3,897 in our Sunday School enrollment. We now have 59,058 members of the Church within the North Mississippi Conference and an enrollment of 40,368 in our Sunday Schools. Out of the 2,919 additions to the Church the past year on profession of faith, 1801 came from the Sunday School, or more than 61 per cent.

Let us not stop short of any standard less than that of making our Sunday School membership equal to that of the Church enrollment.

We are gratified to have had with us during this Conference as the Presiding Bishop the President of our General Sunday School Board and to have him deliver the address at the anniversary of the Conference Sunday School Board.

We send to Dr. J. W. Boswell, an honored member of this Conference, who is reported to be in declining health, our sincerest sympathy and love, and ask that he be reappointed to his present position.

The presence of Mr. A. L. Dietrich, one of the Divisional Secretaries of the Church, with headquarters at Meridian, has been a source of pleasure and profit, and we pledge him our hearty cooperation in the great work in which he is now engaged.

We record with great sorrow and a deep sense of loss the death of Dr. Jno. Y. Murray, who at the time of his death was the President Emeritus of our Conference Sunday School Board, and who for more than half a century was a leader and a prince among Sunday School workers. We mourn his going, but like the early Methodists, "He died well."

We also desire to record our deep sorrow at the death of Dr. H. M. Hamill, the great Sunday School specialist, Superintendent of the Teacher-Training Department of the Church. A prince and a mighty one is fallen but God will carry on his work. Through a better trained teaching force and better methods Dr. Hamill will speak to the generations yet unborn.

Evangelism—The Committee on Evangelism made the following report which was adopted after being read:

EVANGELISM.

The greatest need of the world is the salvation of the lost. In order that we may more efficiently meet that need in the North Mississippi Conference, we recommend the appointment of two Conference Evangelists who shall spend not less than one-half of their time within our bounds, the other half to be used according to their own discretion. The Board of Missions assumes no responsibility for their salaries.

The following requirements are made of the Conference Evangelists: 1st., That they make to the secretary of this Committee quarterly reports of their work. 2nd., That they make earnest inquiry for young men who may contemplate entering the ministry and report names of such to the pastors and presiding elders concerned. 3rd., That they shall also endeavor to find young men and young women who desire special missionary training and give to them such advise and instruction as to where to attend school as they may be able, and to recommend to them sources of information.

For this work of evangelism, we have by unanimous vote selected J. A. Bowen and J. H. Bell, whose appointment we recommend to Bishop Atkins.

To the General Committee on Evangelism, we recommend, W. D. Bass of Corinth and W. M. McIntosh, both local elders, for general evangelistic work.

We heartily recommend these godly men to the Conference and appeal to the pastors to use them, giving them full confidence. We shall look for a great spiritual awakening this year. We hereby ask the Conference to observe a general evangelistic campaign (one to save one) to begin thirty days before Easter and close with Easter Sunday. Literature on that subject will be sent each pastor and any assistance the Committee can give will be gladly rendered.

Bible Society—The American Bible Society made the following report which was read and adopted:

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

It is unnecessary for us to call your attention to the place and value of the Bible, the great book of books, in the progress of civilization.

Whatever its critics have to say about its make up, style, and authorship we must all admit that it contains that revelation of God and man on which rests our social, political and spiritual life and liberties.

We may say what we please about needed reform, and about training for service and the use of the other means of grace, but our knowledge of the Bible as God's personal message to men is the basis of our spiritual life, and the measure of our effectiveness in his field.

Let the Bible be distributed and used more in our homes, and let our preachers use it more frequently in their pastoral visits, placing special emphasis on the fact that this is God's personal message to each of his children.

This brings us to the centennial year of the American Bible Society. This great aid to the Christian Church in the spreading of the gospel was founded in 1816, just one hundred years ago the eleventh of next May. It had a small beginning, but has grown to magnificent proportions. It has brought the entire Bible within easy reach of practically every individual on the globe. The entire book may be had for less than one-fifth the price of an ordinary day's work.

The Society has designated May 7, 1916, as "Centennial Celebration Day" throughout all the churches, and we recommend that our people use the literature sent them, and that this day be observed with appropriate ceremonies in all the churches throughout the Conference.

Our collections for the past year amount to $855. This is 16% in advance of last year. We recommend an assessment of $1200.00 for the ensuing year.

J. M. WYATT, Chairman for the Committee.

Umbrella Presented—On behalf of the preachers of the Sardis District, Dr. H. G. Henderson in appropriate words presented Rev.

J. W. Dorman, presiding elder, a handsome umbrella as a token of the esteem in which he is held by them.

Time of Adjournment—On motion, the Conference resolved by a vote of 88 to 40 to adjourn finally on Sunday evening after the ordination of elders.

Discontinued—On motion of J. W. Bell, D. M. Gean was discontinued.

Adjournment Reconsidered—On motion, the Conference resolved to reconsider the action fixing Sunday evening as the time for final adjournment. The time for the next business session was then fixed for Monday morning at eight o'clock.

Announcements—The Committee on Public Worship announced the following:

MEMORIAL SESSION, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1915.

Opening—Conference met in memorial session, as ordered, Rev. J. H. Smith by appointment of Bishop Atkins in the chair. Hymn 583—

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed Sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep," was sung and John Ritchey led in prayer. A lesson was read by J. B. Randolph from II Cor. 5, 1—11 and another hymn was sung.

The memoir of W. A. Clark was read by J. B. Randolph and that of T. J. Durrett by J. H. Smith. Words of appreciation of these departed brethren were spoken by a number of friends and the report of the Committee was adopted. The congregation joined in singing Hymn 604, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by C. N. Terry.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. T. J. Durrett.

Thomas Jefferson Durrett, son of Rev. John Douglas and Catherine Hollinsworth Durrett, was born on May 31st 1861, in Monroe County, Miss., where he spent most of his life. He was married on Feb. 1st, 1883, to Miss Fidelia M. Wise. Of this union were born five children, two sons and three daughters. The wife and all of the children survive him.

He professed faith in Christ when quite young and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach in 1896 and served the Quincy Circuit, as supply, faithfully and acceptably for four years and also did some other supply work. He was received on trial into the traveling connection of the North Mississippi Annual Conference in Holly Springs, Miss., in December 1903, and served the following charges: Aberdeen Circuit, 1904, Smithville Circuit, 1909-10; Beuna Vista Circuit, 1911-12-13; North Carrollton Circuit, 1914;—and notwithstanding this is a heavy charge and Bro. Durrett was in feeble health, the people loved him so much and were so insistent on his return to them that he consented to be returned for 1915, and served them faithfully until his death.

His work as pastor was always helpful in a spiritual and general way. He was a painstaking and systematic pastor. He was a modest and unassuming but courageous and uncompromising when a principle of truth and righteousness was involved—a true gospel hero. He was far above the average as a revivalist. His preaching was scriptural and logical and was attended with such mental clearness, and spiritual power that he never failed to grip his audience. His work abides. He was loved and honored throughout the territory where he wrought so well. He gave Monroe County valuable service both as a citizen and minister of the gospel, exerting a great influence against the liquor traffic.

Though he had been feeble for some time, he was busy with the work he loved so well until the last. On Sunday night, April the fourth, he preached in Carrollton on Jonathan and his armor-bearer and their victory, not realizing that his own victory over the last enemy would come so soon. His last public scripture reading was on Wednesday morning, April 7th at the Carrollton Preachers' Association from Second Corinthians Fifth Chapter, which begins: "For we know if this earthly house of our tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

What a tender and beautiful looking forward to the coming of the King!

Bro. Durrett died in the parsonage in North Carrollton, Miss., about midnight April 8th., 1915, of apoplexy. The family had retired. He had not, and books and papers about him indicated that he was preparing a sermon. The wife and daughter were aroused in an adjoining room by his falling on the floor and in a few minutes he was dead. Thus the man of God ceased at once to work and live.

A service was held in the church in North Carrollton before remains were carried to Amory where he was buried. A large congregation of people from North Carrollton and from his country churches assembled in sorrowful silence. The service was conducted by Rev. J. H. Smith assisted by the Baptist and Presbyterian preachers of Carrollton.

"The voice at midnight came
He started up to hear,
A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
He fell, but felt no fear.

His sword was in his hand,
Still warm with recent fight,
Ready that moment at command
Through rock and steel to smite.

The pains of death are past
Labor and sorrow ceased,
And Life's long warfare closed at last
His soul is found in peace."

—J. H. SMITH.

Rev. W. A. Clark.

Rev. William Albert Clark, son of Benjamin and Mary Holloway Clark, was born on December 15, 1858, in Prentiss County, Miss. He was reared on a farm and attended the country schools. Later he attended a high school at Marietta, Miss., and the Iuka Normal College for a time. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South at the age of thirteen. He was licensed to preach in 1889, and served the Marietta Circuit as supply in 1890. He joined the North Mississippi Annual Conference in 1891.

He served the following appointments: Iuka Circuit, four years, 1891-95; Booneville Circuit, four years, 1896-99; Sturgis, three years, 1900-03; Starkville Circuit two years, 1904-05; Fearn Springs, two years, 1906-07; Kosciusko Circuit, four years, 1908-11; Mathiston Circuit, two years 1911-12; West Circuit, one year 1913.

While at the last named place, he was thrown from his buggy, receiving injuries from which he never fully recovered. He was a superannuate member of the Conference for two years, most of which time he spent in a State hospital at Jackson, Miss.

In 1882 he was happily married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Moore, of Fulton, Miss. There were nine children born to them, eight of whom are still living—four boys and four girls.

Brother Clark was a good man and a faithful itinerant preacher. He was never heard to complain of his appointment, no matter how remote or how difficult. He was most cheerful and optimistic. He leaves a good name, a highly respected family and a fruitful ministry. He passed to his heavenly home on May 26, 1915.

His remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery at Kosciusko, Miss., after funeral services conducted by Rev. J. B. Randolph, assisted by Rev. C. T. Thompson, of the Presbyterian Church there.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from they loved employ;
The battle fought, the vict'ry won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

—J. B. RANDOLPH.

SIXTH DAY—MONDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1915.

Opening—Conference convened at the appointed time, Bishop Atkins in the chair. The worship was led by R. H. B. Gladney who announced Hymn 551—

What a Friend we have in Jesus, led in prayer and read a brief chapter from John 6th chapter.

Minutes Approved—The minutes of the sessions of Saturday afternoon and of the Memorial Sessions were read and severally approved.

Thanks—The following resolutions of thanks were unanimously adopted:

THANKS.

Whereas this, the forty-sixth session of the North Mississippi Annual Conference, has been in every particular one of the most pleasant, helpful and inspiring in our history; marked, as it has been, by a spirit so democratic and a spiritual uplift so Pentecostal;

And, whereas our Conference host, Rev. S. L. Pope, so nearly the ideal host, and the people of New Albany have made such manifest contribution to the occasion;

Resolved that we hereby express to them something of our appreciation by formal vote, though such action be but a faint indication of the real sentiment of our hearts.

Resolved 2nd., that to the Baptist Church, and her pastor Rev. Mr. Wesson; to the officials at the Court House, and to the business men and officials of the city; to the Wisdom sisters who have so cheered us with song, and to the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. T. H. McDill for his courtesy; to the faithful women who have been our servants for Christ's sake, and to all sister denominations that have offered the use of their churches to our members, we extend our sincere thanks for kindnesses too numerous to mention.

Resolved 3rd., that to the Railroads especially to the local agents, the Commercial Appeal and Rev. E. H. Cunningham, the capable correspondent, the choir of the Methodist Church, and all who have in the remotest way contributed to our comfort, our pleasure and our interest, we say, "Thank you," with all our hearts.

Last but not least, we desire to express our appreciation of the presidency of Bishop James Atkins. Furthermore, we hereby notify all parties concerned, if they do not desire us to come this way again, they had better exercise due care in extending us an invitation.

JAS. H. FELTS,
O. W. BRADLEY,
J. J. BROOKS,
T. M. BRADLEY.

Bishop Waterhouse—Bishop Atkins read a note from Bishop Waterhouse stating that his health was very much improved and expressing his affection for the North Mississippi Conference. The Secretary was asked to write him, conveying the love of the brethren.

Mortmain—The following resolution was read and passed:

REPEAL OF MORTMAIN LAW.

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the movement being made to repeal Sections 269 and 270 of the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, which prohibit the bequeathing of money and real estate to denominational charities.

Resolved, 2nd., That the chair appoint a committee of five to co-operate with similar committees of the different denominational bodies of the State for the accomplishment of this purpose.

(Signed) W. W. WOOLLARD,
J. E. THOMAS,
W. D. WENDEL.

Called to Chair—Rev. W. L. Duren was called to the chair while the Bishop retired for consultation with the cabinet.

Spiritual Interests—The Committee on Spiritual Interests made the following report which was read and adopted:

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

We are deeply gratified to report advance in all departments of Church activity. The terrible European conflict has brought before all our people the awful results of trusting in the strength of man alone. Revivals have been held in many charges and a goodly increase is noted in our membership. The gospel is still the power of God unto salvation in the hands of our ministry.

With gratitude and encouragement, we note also a marked increase in the attendance upon Sunday schools and prayer-meetings. The organized Bible class work is bringing the adult population to a systematic study of the Word of God and educating them for efficient Christian service.

The high tide of spiritual fervor reached during this Conference, surpassing anything we have seen for recent years, betokens the "stirred spirit" of our ministry and church. While the power of the enemy as expressed in the subtle and powerful temptations and vices of our fast-moving modern life is not to be despised, we believe the Church is preparing herself under the leadership of the all-conquering Christ for the greatest conquest of her history.

On the other hand, we would sound a note of warning in this day of mechanical efficiency, against a tendency to substitute in some of our church organizations a club life for the life of the Spirit. We must look with fear on the disposition to compliment and feel satisfied with the merely cultural elements of Christianity. We must be content with nothing short of the Spirit-filled life.

For the welfare of that part of the kingdom committed to our hands, we suggest the following program for the coming year:

1st., Earnest and systematic work for revivals in every congregation.

2nd., The establishment of family altars in every home.

3rd., A closer and more confidential relationship between the ministry and lay membership of our churches.

4th., A systematic and definite campaign to bring every member of the Sunday school into the church and every member of the church into the Sunday school.

(Signed) M. C. SMITH,

L. P. WASSON, for the Com.

Missionary Greetings—On behalf of the Woman's Missionary Society, Miss Corinne Rogers, Secretary for the Corinth District, brought greetings to the Conference, showing unusual increase in the work.

Bishop Atkins appeared and took the chair.
